CU incident probe body starts work

The inquiry commission on Chittagong University incidents will begin its work at Chittagong on January 22, reports BSS.

The commission will have its office at the High Court building, Agrabad, Chittagong and it will start functioning from 9 a.m. on January 22, according to an official handout.

Those who were present at the occurrence and have seen the same or part thereof or have direct knowledge of the occurrence or the circumstances leading to the occurrences or who have been injured or have suffered damage during the occurrence and those who are willing to depose have been requested to submit their names and addresses and written representations if any, to the Secretary of the Commission at its office at Chittagong from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily from January 22 to January 24.

They may be asked to appear before the commission on a date to be fixed later on.
