CU steps to ensure safety of students

The Chittagong University Administration has taken some measures to ensure safety and security of students and a congenial academic atmosphere on the campus when its halls and classes reopen on April 23 and 24 respectively, a university press release said on Sunday, reports BSS.

While staying on the campus the students shall have to carry their identity cards with them all the time. Unauthorised outsiders will not be allowed to enter the university area, only those students who have been allotted seats will be allowed to reside in the halls. The resident students will only be allowed to enter the halls between 10 a.m. and 9 p.m. on April 23 and until further order between 8 a.m. 9 p.m. the following days.
