Meanwhile, emergency syndicate meeting of Chittagong University was held at the campus residence of the VC under protection of police and BDR personnel.

The Vice-Chancellor Prof. Alamgir Mohammad Shirajuddin presided over the meeting that lasted over one hour in the morning.

The total number of members present at the meeting could not be known. The Chittagong University Syndicate consists of altogether seventeen members.

Interestingly enough, there was no previous announcement given by the University for this syndicate meeting. For an emergency meeting of Syndicate, the University does not need to give previous announcement, said a senior teacher of Chittagong University.

The agenda of syndicate meeting could not be known. However, there is a provision of taking up of one agenda in an emergent syndicate meeting.

The quiet holding of syndicate meeting by the Vice-Chancellor ignoring the protest of opponents had aggravated the situation in Chittagong University. The police and BDR are on vigilance round the clock to check any possible outbreak of violence in Chittagong University.
