

PM to visit CU Wednesday

Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, Apr. 3:— Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia will pay a visit to the University of Chittagong next Wednesday.

According to a University Press release, Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia will address the inaugural function of newly built complex of the Institute of Forestry as chief guest. She will also inaugurate the complex of the Institute of Forestry at Chittagong University.

Besides, the Prime Minister will lay foundation stone of the second hall of University girls students on the campus.

Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia is expected to stay on the campus for one and a half hours.

The University authority has made elaborate arrangements for the success of Prime Minister's programmes in Chittagong University.