Students agitating against paper's price-hike at Ctg

Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, Nov. 9:—The school students in Chittagong city have been demonstrating here for the past four days in protest against the price-hike of papers.

The students in hundreds walk out of their classes in different high schools of the Port and take to streets. The agitating students then raising full-throated slogans walk all over the city in processions.

A section of these students turned unruly and went on rampage at New Market area, court road, Anderkilla, Jamal Khan, Momin Road, Shahid Saifuddin Khaled Road and Kazir Dewry area. They pelted stones at the shops and brick-batted and damaged a good number of vehicles.

The police resorted to lathi charges and dispersed these unruly school students at all these places. The police took some boys into custody on Tuesday.
