

অবিষ্ট ... 13-DEC-1990 ...

পঞ্জি পত্র কলাম

Pink Panel sweeps CUTA elections

Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, Dec 12.—All the eleven candidates belonging to the pro-government Pink Panel were elected for the next one year in the elections of the Chittagong University Teachers Association (CUTA) held on the campus today.

The Pink Panel candidates except the candidate for the post of General Secretary defeated the BNP-Jamaat backed White Panel by a good margin. There was, however even contest between the candidates for the post of CUTA General Secretary.

Out of the total 482 votes, 389 votes were cast in the elections that continued non-stop from 9 a.m. to 1.30 p.m. at Science faculty of Chittagong University.

Dr. Manzur Murshed of Accountancy Department from Pink Panel was elected President defeating White Panel candidate Dr. Shamsuddin of Political Science Department. Dr. Murshed bagged 225 votes against 140 votes by Dr. Shamsuddin.

For the post of General Secretary, Pink Panel candidate Dr. Momtazuddin Patwari of General History Department won by the margin of eleven votes. His White Panel rival was Dr. ANM Munir of Political Science Department who bagged 187 votes.

The other elected CUTA office bearers are: Vice-President Dr. Muhammad Shamsuddin, Treasurer Dr. Manindra Kumar Roy, Joint Secretary Prof. Mainul Hussain Chowdhury and six members Prof. Abdullah Mamun, Dr. Aslam Bhuiya, Prof. Mahbubur Rahman, Dr. Muhammad Rashid, Dr. Shahidul Islam and Dr. Md Shamsul Alam.