CU reopens May 8

CU Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, May 2:—Chittagong University will be re-opened on May 8.

The decision was taken at a meeting between the Vice Chancellor and All Party Students Unity (APSU), held at VC's office on Tuesday. In this connection the VC and the student leaders signed a joint declaration.

A Press release issued by Chittagong University authority said that the students would withdraw their siege programme before May 8.

Earlier, around one hundred students under the banner of General Learners Society (GLS) started fast unto death from Saturday last demanding re-opening of the university.

Chittagong University remained closed for the last four months, leaving the academic life of 14,000 students uncertain.
