

6 SEP 1987

1-18

135

DU classes resume tomorrow

Varsity Correspondent

Classes in the Dhaka University will resume tomorrow (Sunday). All necessary steps have been taken by the University authority to hold classes smoothly. Residential halls of the university reopened on Tuesday last amid tight security.

Dhaka University had been closed sine die on July 15 following an armed clash between the supporters of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal and Chhatra League pro-JSD (Inu) in which three persons, including two students were killed.

A meeting of the Dhaka University Educational Environment Council was held on Friday at the administrative building under the chairmanship of Prof. Abdul Mannan, Vice-Chancellor of the University. The meeting in a resolution decided that it would hold a meeting of the teachers, students and employees of the University on first day of reopening of the University in pursuance of bringing back congenial academic atmosphere on the campus.

See Page 8 Col. 7

DU

From Page 1 Col. 4

Teachers, students rally

A silent procession will be brought out by the teachers, employees and students of Dhaka University on Sunday.

The processionists will parade the campus areas. The decision to bring out the silent procession was taken at a meeting of Education Environment Council of Dhaka University on Friday with Vice-Chancellor Prof. Abdul Mannan in the chair, says a Press release. The meeting discussed the situation, obtaining in the residential halls in the context of the re-opening of the university.