Second shift in 8 city govt schools

The government has decided to introduce second shift in eight government schools in the capital from the current academic year to reduce pressure of admission to different classes in those schools, reports BSS.

The schools are Government Laboratory School, Dhanmondi Government Boys High School, Mohammadpur Government High School, Ganobhaban Government High School, Tejgaon Government Girls School, Dhaka Collegeate School, Khilgaon High School and Science College School, according to an official handout.

The government has also decided to introduce second shift in 32 schools situated in old district towns of the country from the current academic year.

The second shift has been introduced earlier in ten schools of Dhaka city and 12 government schools situ-
