Teacher beaten up at Bagerhat

BAGERHAT, Aug 23:-A high school teacher was critically injured as miscreants beat him up with iron rods at Chandrapara village in Kachua thana Saturday, reports UNB.

Villagers said the criminals picked up Azhar Ali, an Assistant Teacher of Goalmut Girls High School, from in front of Khalishakholi Primary School while he was returning home at night.

They took him to a desolate spot and beat him up heartlessly. They also pushed iron rods into his legs and later left him in an unconscious state.

Local people took him to the Thana Health Complex from where he was shifted to a hospital in Khulna.
