

সালিশ .. 2-5 AUG 1993 ..

সংখ্যা .. ৭ .. পৃষ্ঠা .. ৫ ..

The Bangladesh Observer

New BAU VC appointed

The President and Chancellor of Bangladesh Agricultural University has appointed Dr. Shah Mohammad Farooq, Professor of Agriculture, Energy and Mechanical Department of the same university to the post of Vice-Chancellor of Bangladesh Agricultural University for a period of four years, according to an official handout in Dhaka on Tuesday, reports BSS.

Born on August 19, 1941, Dr. Farouk came of a respectable Muslim family from Mymensingh town. After completion of Matriculation and I.Sc. examinations from Mymensingh Zila School and Ananda Mohan College respectively, he got himself admitted into the Bachelor Course of BUET in 1959 and had his B.Sc. Engg. degree in Mechanical Engineering in 1963. Later, he had MS (Agri. Engg.) degree from Texas A&M University in 1967 and Ph.D. from Oklahoma State University in 1979.