RU teachers hold rally against VC's removal

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, Feb. 25.—The RU teachers who are inspired by the Bangladeshi Nationalism and Islamic values, brought out a silent procession and held rally on Rajshahi University campus on Tuesday protesting the removal order of Prof M. Yusuf Ali from the post of Vice-Chancellor of Rajshahi University.

Some 200 teachers of the university wearing black badges gathered at the premises of Dr. Zoha this morning from where they brought out a silent procession under the banner of "Rajshahi University Teachers Community that paraded in and outside of the campus. After the procession they held a rally at the premises with Prof. M. Korban Ali in the chair.

Vehemently condemning the VC's removal order the speakers in the rally termed the order as illegal, undemocratic and autocratic.

They also urged Chancellor to withdraw the VC's removal order immediately. Otherwise, they warned that they would compel the authority to withdraw the order through a mass movement in RU campus.

The rally was addressed, among others, by S.Q.G. Mahtabwali, Prof. M. Umar Ali and M. Tareq Fazal.
