NSU orientation programme held

North South University (NSU) concluded the orientation programme for the newly enrolled undergraduate students of Business, Computer Science, Economics and English of Spring 2002 semester on campus recently. Dr Hafiz GA Siddiqi, Pro Vice Chancellor of NSU welcomed the students and thanked the guardians for showing their confidence in NSU, says a Press release.

Congratulating the students for their success in the very competitive admission test, Professor Siddiqi assured them of high quality modern education and congenial atmosphere at NSU. He advised them to take full advantage of NSU's highly qualified faculty, hi-tech computer labs and a very rich library with latest book and journals. Dr Siddiqi also emphasised on the importance of discipline and informed the students that they must abide by the NSU Code of Conduct.

The chairmen of the concerned departments and Zafrul Karim, NSU registrar, also spoke on the occasion. Orientation programme was conducted by the respective department faculty members.
