

MAR. 25 2002

Oxford teacher visits Dhaka

Dr Farhan A Nizami, Director of Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies, Oxford University arrives in Dhaka on a two-day visit on Thursday, reports UNB.

Dr Nizami will visit the Department of Islamic History and Culture of Dhaka University and discuss on the development of a proposed link programme between the department and Oxford Centre of UK.

He will deliver a lecture on 'The Role of Islamic History' at Bangladesh Institute of Administration and Management auditorium on Friday organised by British Council of Bangladesh under its 'Connecting Future Initiatives' - a new development initiative.

This will mark the inauguration ceremony of the golden jubilee celebration of the Department of Islamic History and Culture of Dhaka University.

Later, Nizami will attend a meeting with Itihas Parishad Bangladesh (History Association) as well as the Islamic History and Culture Alumni Association, which will be followed by a dinner hosted by Vice Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof Anwarullah Chowdhury, said a press release today.