

০২/৮/২০০৩

Syndicate meet takes no decision to reopen CU

CU Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, Aug 30:—

The Syndicate meeting of Chittagong University (CU) today ended in a chaotic situation without taking any decision on the resumption of university classes due to the walk out of the Syndicate members.

During the meeting at 2 pm the members of Bishwabiddalaya Karmachari Oikya Parishad (BKOP) gheraoed Syndicate meeting in protest against the sacking of some 300 employees of CU who have been working here under ad hoc and master roll basis. The BKOP behaved very rudely with the Syndicate members of the university and in protest the Syndicate members postponed the meeting.

The Syndicate meeting on August 27 cancelled all the appointments under ad hoc and master roll basis terming it illegal.