

The Bangladesh Times BGCTA to work in mass literacy programme

By A Staff Reporter

A meeting of the central executive committee of the Bangladesh Government College Teachers Association on Tuesday decided to participate actively in the mass literacy programme of the government.

According to a Press release of the association the meeting decided to work out a broad programme for the purpose and requested all its units to remain prepared to take necessary steps as per its programme.

The meeting presided over by Principal Jahanara Begum, President of the organisation also decided to hold the annual general meeting of the association on November 23.

Adult education centre at Azimpur

In observance of social welfare fortnight an adult education centre was opened on Monday at Azimpura under the auspices of Bipasa Sanskritik Sangha. The Director of Social Welfare inaugurated it, according to a press release of the division reports BSS.

Sargam powdered milk bleaching powder, clothes were distributed among the flood victims in Zahuri Mahalla Barabo Primary School and opened two relief camps at Hazari Bagh in cooperation with the Jatio Tarun Sangha the Press release said.

4/9/80

3

025