APSU call to resist anti-social elements

By Our DU Correspondent

All Party Students Unity (APSU) in a statement on Monday expressed grave concern over deterioration of law and order situation, hijacking of cars, collection of subscriptions, threats and frequent movement of armed hooligans in the name of APSU.

The APSU called upon the people to remain alert against such activities of the vested quarters and urged them to resist such elements at any cost. "Help of the law enforcing agencies must be sought," it said.
