3.29 lakh appear at SSC exam Monday next

By A Staff Reporter

The Secondary School Certificate (SSC) examination under all the four education boards begins on Monday next. A total of 3,29,381 candidates are expected to sit for the examination in 520 centres.

According to a source of Education Ministry, which centrally coordinate the examination, necessary preparations were completed and candidates were provided with admit cards.

This is for the first time candidates under new course are appearing the examination. Of the total candidates about 1.76 lakh candidates are appearing under new course while rest of them are appearing under old one.

Total number of candidates this year decreased by about 76 thousand in respect to the total number of 4.05 lakh in 1984. This was due to the introduction of new course said the Controller of Dhaka Board.
