

13

C/

CU degree exam script scandal: action against 7

CHITTAGONG, May 10 (BSS): The Chittagong University Syndicate today suspended four university employees and asked three officers to go on forced leave in connection with examination script scandal, a University press release said.

The Syndicate took this action against the university
Contd. on page 8 col. 3

Contd. from page 1
employees and officers on the basis of an interim report submitted by the four-member examination script scandal probe committee.

The university authority constituted the committee in February last to enquire into the scandal relating to examination scripts of degree (pass) examinations of 1990.

The four employees suspended are: senior assistants Ahsanuzzaman and Mokhlesur Rahman, lower division assistant Shahabuddin Bhuiyan and upper division assistant Kabiruddin Ahmad.

The officers asked to go on forced leave are: Deputy Controller of Examinations-Mohiuddin Ahmad Khan, Assistant Controller of Examinations-Kazi Habibur Rahman and Section Officer-Abdul Awal.

27