'93 SSC exam to be held in same way as in 1992

The SSC Examination for 1993 will be held in the same way as in 1992, reports BSS.

According to Education Ministry sources, the SSC examinees will be declared to have passed if they secure a total marks of 33 in any subject having objective questions. That means if a student secures a total marks of 33 either in objective or essay type questions, he will be given pass mark in that particular subject. Moreover, objective type questions will be set from the 500-mark questions bank, the sources said.

The government expressed the hope that this decision will remove the concern of the SSC examinees and they would devote themselves to studies.
