Directives to printers of newspapers, periodicals

The Government has asked the printers of the newspapers and periodicals of the country to deliver copies of all issues of newspapers and periodicals, as soon as those are published, to certain specified Government officials as a proof of their regular publication, reports BSS.

This is a statutory requirement and there is also a provision for penalty under the law against defaulters in this respect, an official handout said in Dhaka on Thursday.

According to a Government notification issued recently under, Section 26 of the Printing and Publications Declaration and Registration) Act, 1973, the printer of every newspaper and periodical is required to deliver its copies, as soon as it is published, to the officers in the manner noted below:
