'Maintain corruption-free exam system'

Minister for Law, Education and Religious Affairs Justice AKM Nurul Islam called upon the Education Board officers and employees to maintain a corruption-free examination system for proper growth of our younger generations, reports BSS.

The minister was speaking as chief guest in an installation ceremony of Dhaka Education Board Employees Association on Saturday afternoon at the Board office.

Justice Islam stressed the need to keep discipline in educational institutions and said teachers and guardians should unitedly come forward to strengthen Government efforts in this regard.

He said, youth was the life force of the nation which should be trained to play its due role in nation building activities. The students should not dabble in politics, he added.

He urged the meeting to uphold the tradition of Dhaka Board and contribute for raising the present standard of education in the country.

Presided over by Mr. Abu Mohammad, Chairman, Dhaka Education Board, the meeting was addressed by A. Z. M. Zafullah, President of Employees Association.
