Govt committed to present an educated nation

KISHOREGANJ, June 24 (BSS): Law and Justice Minister Habibul Islam Bhuiyan Saturday said the government was committed to present an educated nation.

This way, he said, an educated nation would bring about tremendous progress and prosperity of the country.

He was addressing a gathering of teachers, students and guardians at Zila Sharani Girls High School here Saturday. Zila Parishad Chairman Mujibul Huq Chunnu, MP, Advocate Nuruzzaman MP, Alamgir Hossain MP and Chairman of the Kishoregonj Pourasava Alhaj Mazharul Islam Bhuiyan also spoke on the occasion.

Law and Justice Minister said the government has attached more priority to the education sector and had made a big budget allocation for the coming financial year for the expansion of education. It was a rare example in the history of country's since 1947, he said.

An educated mother could make an educated child for which the government has given more emphasis on expansion of female education in the country and has provided free education to girls upto class viii outside the municipal areas, he said.

He urged the affluent people to come forward in a bigger way to supplement government efforts towards spread of education.

The Minister visited Nurul Ulum Degree Women's Madrasha at Kishoregonj where five hundred girls including over 200 orphans are studying.

The Minister expressed his deep satisfaction over the excellent result of the students and discipline maintained in the institution.
