

17 SEP 1993

Education Day today

By Our Correspondent

Historic Education Day will be observed throughout the country today (Friday). On the day, Mostafa, Waliullah and Babul, three students sacrificed their lives in a movement against Humidur Rahman Education Report in 1962.

Contd. on page 8 col. 4

Education Day

Contd. from page 1

Different student organisations have chalked out elaborate programmes in observance of the day.

Bangladesh Chhatra League (B-C) will bring out a procession and hold a rally demanding immediate implementation of 10-point demands of the student community by September 27.

Meanwhile, leaders and activists of Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) gheraoed Bangladesh Secretariate demanding implementation of "people oriented scientific education policy" in the country.

The BCU organised a rally in front of the Jatiya Press Club. The rally was addressed among others by eminent economist Muzaffar Ahmed, Advocate A. K. Badrul Huq, T. V. Artiste, Asaduzzaman Nur, Fakir Alamgir Sadjat Zahir Chandon and Chowdhury Salahuddin Tito while Ruhin Hossain Prince, President of BCU was in the chair.

Speakers at the rally stressed on a people-oriented scientific education policy for the development of the country.