DU Commerce Faculty to be renamed

By A Staff Reporter

The Commerce Faculty of Dhaka University will be renamed "Business Studies" Faculty through amending the relevant Article of Dhaka University Order 1973. The degrees under the faculty will also get new names.

A decision taken by the Dhaka University Syndicate to rename the Commerce Faculty in view of its expanding scope has been approved by the council of Ministers in a recent meeting.

The council of ministers decided to amend Article 27 (1) of Dhaka University Order 1973 to rename the Commerce Faculty and also the degrees offered by it.

Under the amended Article the degrees of Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com) and Master of Commerce (M.Com) will be renamed as Bachelor of Business studies (BBS) and Master of Business studies (MBS), respectively.

The council of ministers viewed that the renaming of the Faculty and the degrees it offers would not bring a fundamental change to the education system. The proposal aims at encompassing the wider scope of the Faculty and many countries of the world have renamed Commerce Faculty and degrees under it under the changed circumstances.

The cabinet meeting observed that the renaming of the Commerce Faculty and degrees under it would not affect the Institution of Business Administration nor was there any scope for misunderstanding.
