

DU tense again after gunshots

By Our DU Correspondent

Dhaka University campus remained tense once again following firing of several rounds of shots on Saturday evening.

Witnesses said, at least 20 rounds of gunshots were heard near the British Council library and in the SM Hall following an intra organisation clash between two factions of Bangladesh Chhatra League (A-A) SM Hall Unit. There was no report of any casualty.

According to latest reports tension was prevailing among the residents of SM Hall following the incident.
