university authorities tried to start honours examination at the university 6 days after postponement of the examination.

According to a Rajshahi University press release one Babul Akhter Babul, VP of Madar Baksh Hall and organizing secretary of RU unit of JCD was arrested by Moulher police on December 27 night and later on he was forwarded to Rajshahi Central Jail on the following day. Supporters of Babul Akhter kept the administrative building of RU under lock and key from December 28 and made obstacles in continuing the ongoing honours examination. The authorities was compelled to postpone the ongoing examination from December 29 to December 31. The press release mentioned that considering the inconvenience of the general students caused by the postponement the authorities started the examination yesterday but the supporters of Babul created panic in the examination hall and the examinees left the hall.
