

02 DEC 1993

15

2 teachers, 25 students injured on RU campus

From Our Correspondent
RAJSHAHI, Dec 1: Two teachers and 25 students of Rajshahi University were injured this evening when police all of a sudden lathi-charged on them at the 'Sabash Bangladesh' premises of the university campus.

According to information, some teachers and students today held a cultural function there despite ban on holding any meeting in the campus and police dispersed them and baton charged them from behind while the students were going away from the spot of cultural function.

The two teachers who got injured are: S M Abu Bakr and Malay Bhowmik.

The injured teachers and students received first aid from the Varsity Medical Centre.

Meanwhile various organisations condemned the police action on students at RU.