BCL factional fights in DU

By A DU Correspondent

Tension gripped Dhaka University campus Sunday as activists of two feuding factions of pro-Awami Chhatra League chased each other at Madhu's Canteen at about 11:00 a.m.

Witnesses said the dispute ensued when some activists of Chhatra League (M-L) threatened their rival Montu group group BCL (A-L) supporters at the canteen.

It is learnt that the BCL (M-L) supporters

M-L activists forced their rivals to quit the campus but when they refused, a group of mastans allegedly belonging to Golam Faruq Ovec motor cycling around the Madhu's Canteen and Arts faculty area.

By hearing the news, the Montu group activists came out of their strong hold in Zahirul Huq Hall and S M Hall and reinforced the strength of those under attack.

Panic-stricken students staying at the Madhu's Canteen ran helter skelter for safety apprehending clash.

Police deployed near Madhu's Canteen rushed to the spot as the both groups were about to confront and brought the situation under control.

Huge police have been posted on the campus toward off any trouble.
