Rival BCL activists trade gun shots at DU

By A Staff Reporter

Rival groups of pro-Awami League BCL engaged in a brief gun battle Thursday evening on Dhaka University Campus. But none was hurt.

Eye-witnesses said, a group of BCL activists who were recently expelled from the organisation came in three motor cycles near Shamsunnahar Hall and chased some other BCL activists. Both side exchanged at least nine rounds of gun shots during the chase and counter chase.

During the incident, panic-stricken students pedestrians ran to safety. Tension has gripped the BCL activists in different student dormitories of Dhaka University.
