22,445 selected for BCS written exam

A total of 22,445 candidates have been provisionally selected to sit for written examination of the 17th batch of BCS cadre service, an official handout said in Dhaka Sunday night, reports BSS.

The written examination is likely to be held in the last week of February 1996. Actual date and time will be notified through newspapers and admit cards will be sent to the candidates by post. The results of the 14 successful candidates of London Centre will be notified by post, the handout added.
