DU admission test results

By Our DU Correspondent

The results of the admission test for the 1st year B. Com (hons) 'Kha' unit under Dhaka University for 1992-93 session will be published today (Sunday), said a DU press release.

M SC (PHYSICS)

The examination of the final year M Sc in Physics (conventional system of 1989) under Dhaka University which was scheduled to be held from April 26, will now be held from July 25 for some unavoidable circumstances.

Time-table of the said examination will be announced later, said a DU press release.

ZOOLOGY

Those who will not pass in the honours examination in zoology (conventional system of 1990) under Dhaka University will be allowed to sit in the examination of 1991 (honours-conventional system) for their improvements.

Candidates will have to follow curriculum of 1990 or 1991, says a DU press release.
