

74

Islamic Varsity teachers call on PM

A delegation of the Syndicate members and teachers of Islamic University led by Vice Chancellor Professor Muhammad Abdul Hamid called on Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia at her Secretary Thursday evening, reports BSS.

During the meeting the Prime Minister advised the university authorities to take appropriate steps for the restoration of congenial academic atmosphere.

She suggested holding of discussions with the guardians of students for curbing acts of violence on the campus. The Prime Minister said none should be allowed to create chaos on the campus.

Earlier, Professor Muham-

Contd. on page 8 col. 3

Islamic Varsity

Contd. from page 1

mad Abdul Hamid apprised the Prime Minister of the various problems of the university. He sought increased budget allocations to meet urgent needs of the university.

The matters brought to the notice of the Prime Minister included financial hardships, shortage of accommodation and transport problems.

Education Minister Jamiruddin Sircar was present.