Terrorism to be completely wiped out from edn institutions: PM

The members of Bangladesh University Parishad, the standing committee of Vice-Chancellors, Tuesday called on Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia at her office and discussed the problems of the Vice-Chancellors, teachers, students and universities of the country, reports BSS.

The Vice-Chancellors highlighted the problems relating to pension fund, development of libraries, improvement of laboratories, student scholarship, improvement of computer and telephone system and training of teachers.

The Vice-Chancellors told the Prime Minister that the session jam problem had significantly been improved in different universities including Dhaka University, Jahangirnagar University, Khulna University and Islamic University.

They said apart from some universities, the academic atmosphere had improved significantly with the stoppage of terrorist activities in the Universities.

The Prime Minister, however, said terrorism had to be completely eliminated from all the educational institutions. She said there were many to extend help to the development of the universities but the atmo-
