as the chief guest at a function organised by Gulshan Model High School in celebration of Parents Day.

Mr. Sarwar said that the present government had been working concertrately with educationists, intellectuals and professionals in order to formulate an education policy in keeping with the country's requirements. He called upon the students, teachers and guardians to be conscience of their duties and responsibilities and work hard for the continued progress of the country.

The Minister cautioned that vacuum and insolvency created in our educational institutions due to anarchy and restlessness was destined to adversely affect our posterity.
