The Education Minister said that no government in the past did so much for the improvement in the standard of education and enhancing the dignity of teachers and those associated with education as had been done by the present government. In fact, the government under the dynamic leadership of President Ershad had introduced people-oriented system in all spheres of national life for the development of the country and welfare of the masses, he added.

Referring to the presidential election, he said it would mark the completion of the democratic process initiated by President Ershad.
