Govt committed to remove illiteracy

CHITTAGONG, Oct 2: Communications Minister Oli Ahmad today said the government was committed to eradicating illiteracy for the development of human resources, reports BSS.

He was addressing a conference of the district unit of Bangladesh Teachers' Association at the District Council auditorium here.

Syed Wahidul Alam MP and Sirajul Islam MP also spoke on the occasion. President of the organisation Nasir Ahmad was in the chair.

He said, making primary education compulsory and launching "food for education" programmes were the testimonies of the sincerity of the government in this regard. He termed and the teachers as the architects of society, he called upon them to come forward to make the programme a success.

He also urged the teachers to uproot the tendency of adopting unfair means in the examinations and said, no person dishonest in the student life can be a good citizen in later life.
