

অন্তিম ... 06 NOV 1992

সংবাদ ... ২ ... কলাম ... ৫ ...

BAU Silver Jubilee on Dec 23-24

AGRI-VARSITY (Mymensingh), Nov. 5 : The Silver Jubilee festival of the faculty of Agricultural Engineering and Technology (AET) of Bangladesh Agricultural University (BAU) on completion of 25 years of its establishment will be held on December 23 and 24. The two day long festival will include a seminar on "The role of agricultural engineers in our national development" and an exhibition of various onfarm irrigation and agricultural machineries including innovative technologies. Intending organisations and graduates have been requested to contact Prof. R. I. Sarkar, Dean of the Faculty of AET and Convenor of silver jubilee organising committee of BAU, Mymensingh with their addresses of communication at the earliest conveniences, says a press release.

BAU CONFRS PH. D 2 TO RESEARCHERS

The Academic Council of Bangladesh Agricultural University (BAU) in its 14th session held recently at the Shilpacharya Zainul Abedin auditorium had accorded approval on awarding the degree of Ph. D two research student of BAU for their outstanding performance in agricultural research.

Mr. Md. Salahuddin, Principal Scientific Officer in the Poultry Production Research Division of Bangladesh Livestock Research Institute (BLRI) was awarded Ph. D in Animal Nutrition for his thesis entitled "The effects of different levels of protein and energy on the performance of laying hens in Bangladesh." Prof. Dr. A. M. M. Tareque of the department of Animal Nutrition of BAU was his research-guide.

Mr. Anwar Hossain, Assistant Director of Integrated Fisheries Development Project, Chandpur got his Ph. D in Aquaculture and Management for his thesis entitled "A study on the feeding ecology of Clarias batrachus and Ahabas testudineus". His research guide was Prof Dr. Md. Anwarul Islam of the department of Aquaculture and Management of BAU.