

BUET students call off strike

By Our BUET Correspondent

The students of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) will attend their classes from tomorrow (Saturday). All-party Students Action Council (SAC) has withdrawn call for continuous strikes after getting assurance from the authority.

In an announcement on Thursday SAC said that the Vice-Chancellor of BUET had agreed.

Contd. on page 2 col. 2

BUET

Contd. from page 1

reed to convene a meeting of the Academic Council within a week where a proposal on modifying the class test system would be tabled. The Vice-Chancellor has also acquiesced in the demand of increasing the stipend, the announcement added.

The students of BUET were boycotting their classes for the last two months in support of their two demands abolition of class test system and enhancement of the stipend.