

২৯

012

4 get Academy of Sciences awards

By A Staff Reporter

Bangladesh Academy of Sciences has selected four scientists for the academy award for the year 1988 for their contributions in physical and biological sciences.

According to an academy press release, Dr. K.M.A. Malik, Professor of Chemistry of Dhaka University was selected in the senior group and Dr. Saiful Islam, Associate Professor of Electrical and Electronics Engineering at BUET was selected in the junior group for their contributions in Physical sciences.

In Biological sciences, Dr. Hasanuzzaman, Director General of Bangladesh Rice Research Institute and Dr. M. A. Sattar, Associate Professor of Soil Science at Agricultural University were selected in the senior and junior groups, respectively.

Awards in the senior group includes a gold medal and a cash of Taka 20,000 while in junior group the award includes a gold medal and a cash of Taka 10,000 plus books worth 150 pounds donated by the British Council.