

তারিখ 17 FEB 1996

পঞ্জি ২ কলাম ৭

Mass education programme progressing in Chuadanga

From Our Correspondent

CHUADANGA, Feb 17. Mass Education Programme of Chuadanga Islamic Foundation is going on in full swing in Chuadanga district.

The foundation introduced the programme under its mosque-based Integrated Non-formal Education Programme with a view to ensure education fall all by the year 2000.

The programme has gained confidence of the grass-root level people, said Md. Shidul Islam, Deputy Director of Islamic Foundation.

Israfil Hossain, field Supervisor said that the number of people at different ages having interest in the mosque-based integrated non-formal education programme in Chuadanga is increasing day by day.

According to local Islamic Foundation office, at present over 1350 children and adults are taking primary and religious education through 45 non-formal schools set up at mosques of different rural villages.

A good number of girl students have been included in the programme. Many libraries have been set up for the programme in the district.