BUET Syndicate members call on Khaleda

The Syndicate members of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) called on Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia at her Sugandha Office on Sunday night, reports BSS.

The Syndicate members, who were led by the Vice Chancellor of BUET Dr Mohammed Shahjahan, Dr Mafizuddin Ahmed, Dr SZ Haider, Dr MA Mannan, Dr Md Waliuzzaman, Dr Giasuddin Ahmed and Prof Abu Haider Imam Uddin.

The members congratulated Begum Khaleda Zia for her initiative for holding the convocation of BUET which had removed the long standing bottlenecks.

The Prime Minister said it was possible to hold the convocation following the united endeavour of the teachers, students and employees of BUET.

The members informed the Prime Minister that all in the BUET particularly the students were eager to maintain peaceful, violence free atmosphere on the campus.

The Prime Minister said her government was determined to ensure peaceful and academic atmosphere on the campuses.

The Syndicate members urged the Prime Minister to involve the teachers and students of the Architecture Department of the University in the city development planning.

They said the involvement would enable the teachers and students of the department to reach the benefit of their research to the city dwellers.

The Syndicate members also told the Prime Minister of the fund problem which arose out of the university's initiative to remove session jam and problems related to the expansion of the University.
