

Model schools or city likely

Education Minister Anisul Islam Mahmud said in Dhaka on Friday that the government was actively considering to set up ten model schools in the Dhaka Metropolitan area to upgrade the level of education, reports BSS.

He was addressing the inaugural function of the new building of Pallabi M I Model High School in Dhaka an official handout said.

Mr Mahmud said the model schools which were under consideration although to be set up by the government would be run by the local community to ensure their greater participation and involvement.

Contd. from page 1

10 models

Contd. from page 1

These schools will have classes from primary to higher secondary level, he added.

Presided over by Al-Haj Abdul Karim the meeting was also addressed by Mr M A Khaleq MP.

The Education Minister said the goals of the nationalisation was not achieved. Therefore the government now wanted community participation for the overall qualitative improvement of the education. He also urged the affluent section of the society to help spread of education in the country.

Education Secretary Mr Hedayet Ahmed, was present on the occasion.