Medical colleges

closed for a month

By Our SSMC Correspondent

All the medical colleges of the country were declared closed for one month from Saturday (Oct. 18) and students were asked to vacate their hostels by 4 p.m.

The medical colleges were scheduled to reopen on Saturday after a 10-day recess on the occasion of Durga Puja and the presidential election.

Students who came from home to attend classes on Saturday had to be back home again following the closure notice.
