

217

Best college teacher of Madaripur

From Our Correspondent

MADRIPUR : Mr. Abdul Jabbar Miah, Lecture in English, Govt. Nazimuddin College, Madaripur, was adjudged as the best college-teacher of Madaripur District in the Education Week-91 observed here recently. Mr. Abdul Jabbar has a good academic career and has a long 18 years, teaching experience. He joined Govt. Nazimuddin College in 1975. As a teacher, his performance is quite satisfactory and praise-worthy.

He has successfully completed the Foundation Training and Training in English conducted by the National Institute of Education Extension and Research, Dhaka. He secured the first position in English Recitation competition and selected as the best speaker in English Debate Competition in the Foundation Training held in 1989.

He is associated with many sociocultural organisations of Madaripur town. He is the General Secretary of the Federation of Teachers' Association of Madaripur district-unit; Vice-President of Madaripur Shilpakala Academy; Joint-Secretary, Hajera Howlader Diabetic Hospital; Secretary, Madaripur Islamic Academy; Vice-President, Anjuman-e-Khamate Khalq, Madaripur; Ex-Chairman, Madaripur Al-Zabir School and Ex-Secretary, Madaripur Press Club. He is also our Madaripur District Correspondent since 1978.

His two translated works (1) Antarjatic Manabadhikar Sanad (The Bill of Rights) (2) Jatisangha Ebang Nari Adhikar (The uno and the Rights of women) were published by Madaripur Legal aid Association. He hails from village Kashimpur under Rajoir Upazila of Madaripur district.