

২০ MAY ১৯৯২

১০১

২

১৭৪

Cooperate with govt move for violence free campus

Information Minister Nazmul Huda Tuesday urged all to extend their all-out cooperation toward government's initiative to free the educational institutions from terrorism and violence, reports BSS.

"The seeds of learning must be freed from the curse of terrorism to build the nation strong inhibited with the spirit of our great liberation war," he said.

The Information Minister was addressing as the chief guest at a function of Motijheel Night School in city organised to mark its 20th founding anniversary of the school.

Former State Minister A.K. Faizul Huq, Akhter Hamid Siddique MP, Headmaster of the school and freedom fighter Mesbahuddin Ahmed Sabu and Assistant Headmaster of the school Mohammad Iqbal also addressed the meeting. The function was presided over by Abul Hossain.

The Minister said those who were working for the country's progress and prosperity were the real pro-independence force, "the country today needs that force to protect its independence and sovereignty," he said.

In this respect, the Minister stressed for rapid expansion of education all over the country and said the government had given top priority to it considering its utmost importance to lead the country towards progress.

He said the present democratic government had made the highest allocation in the education sector, made the female education free upto class eight and launched compulsory primary education to make the nation a self-reliant and educated force.

Mr. Nazmul Huda announced a donation of Taka 10,000 for the school. Mr. A.K. Faizul Huq, also announced Taka 5,000 as donation for the school. Mr. Akhter Hamid Siddique also announced Taka 5000 as donation for the school.