DU students' strike today

Students of Dhaka University has called for a day long strike today (Thursday) to demand an exemplary punishment to those responsible for the Zahirul Huq Hall incident, reports UNB.

The strike call came at a rally in the campus on Wednesday, organised by some female students, who also demanded removal of the provost and house tutors of the hall of residence.

Speakers at the rally condemned the recent decision of the university, which prohibits female guests from going to the halls of residence of male students.

Students organisations, including Pro-Awami Chhatra League (M-I) and Ganatantrik Chhatra Oikya (GCO) have supported the strike call.

Meanwhile, Dhaka University Teachers Association (DUTA) has condemned the incident and demanded an exemplary punishment to the culprits.
