DU VC's call: uphold pursuit of knowledge

Prof. M. Maniruzzaman Miah, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Dhaka called upon freshers to make good use of all available facilities in the University. He said that misuse of these shall be considered by the people as a social offence.

The Vice-Chancellor was addressing the 1st year Honours students of the departments of English, mass communication and journalism, history, Islamic history and library and information science at their orientation programme held on August 12 at the Teacher-Students Centre auditorium.

He said that the main objective of teachers and students was identical. All wanted to acquire knowledge. This objective must be achieved by them through mutual exchange of views and thoughts he said.

The function chaired by Mrs. Meherunnessa Chowdhury, Acting Director of the Students Counselling and guidance office was also addressed by Dr. Wakil Ahmed, Dean of the faculty of arts. Dr. Syed Manjurul Islam, Dr. Shahadat Ali, Dr. Golam Rahman, Messrs Shamsul Huda, Shamsul Huq, Ramjul Huq, Kamrul Ahsan Chowdhury, Alamgir Hossain and Madhab Chandra Dey.
