Police raid DU halls : 1 held

DHAKA, Sept 17 (UNB) : Police raided two residential halls of Dhaka University at about 2 am Sunday night and recovered a substantial cache of arms and arrested one person.

Acting upon a secret information, a huge contingent of police raided Mohsin and Kabi Jasimuddin halls and continued their room to room search for two hours. About 66 rounds of bullet and 7 knives were recovered from the guest room of Mohsin Hall, police said.

They also seized 6 passports from the hall.

The arrested person from Mohsin Hall was identified as A N M Mahmudul Islam, a 2nd year B.A (Hons) student of Dhaka College.

House tutors of both the Halls were also present during the raid.

Eyewitnesses said, immediately after the raid several rounds of gunshots were fired from the Mohsin, Surja Sen, Ziaur Rahman and Jasimuddin hall areas.
