Police raid DU Mohsin Hall

DIHAKA, Sept 26 (UNR) : Police raided and searched Mohsin Hall of Dhaka University Tuesday night and recovered a ramdan and a clay pot (Kolki) used for smoking ganja.

The raid began at about 10 p m and continued till 12 midnight, residents said.

No arrest, however, was made in the midnight swoop.

Police contingents are guarding major entry points to the university, restricting passage of automobiles into the campus.

Meanwhile, the 10-day autumn vacation of the University began today, and most resident students have already vacated the halls.

The University will open on October 6.

Police raided Jasimuddin and Bangabandhu halls on Tuesday following gunfight between two rival factions of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal. Ilias Ali, the leader of his faction, and his two associates were picked up in yesterday's afternoon swoop.
